

Oklahoma & Neighboring States Judgment and Decision Making group.

Spring Conference Schedule: May 5, 1995.

Family Medicine Department, University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Time	Presenter, Institution	Title
8:30		Gathering, conversation, set up posters
9:00	Rob Hamm, Frank Lawler	Welcome, Introductions
9:15	Charles Gettys, Psychology, OU Norman	Advances in the Likelihood Memory Model.
10:15	Brian Nightengale, College of Pharmacy, OUHSC	Willingness-to-pay for Pharmaceuticals: An Estimation of Statistical Bias.
10:40	break
10:55	Julia Pounds, Psychology, Kansas State Univ.	A Skeptic's Look at the Question of the Question in Preference Reversal.
11:20	Mary Dzindolet, Psychology, Cameron Univ.	A Comparison of Social Influence and Production Blocking in Individual and Interactive Brainstorming.
12:05	Lunch break
1:30	Rob Hamm, Family Medicine, OUHSC	Use of Multi-outcome Lotteries as a Measure of Risk Attitude toward Uncertainty of Life Duration:
2:15	Mark Comstock, Business Administration, Missouri Southern State College	S. Mark Comstock, John Giles, and Elizabeth J. Rozell, Issues of Choice and Improvement in Judgment Tasks Involving Self Insight.
2:45	break
3:00	James Shanteau, Psychology, Kansas State Univ.	From Cattell to Boring: Some New Perspectives on the History of Research on Expertise.
3:30	Frank Lawler, Family Medicine, OUHSC	Dilemmas in the use of Prostate Specific Antigen as a diagnostic screening test.
3:55	break
4:05	Mary Ann Hocutt, Marketing, Oklahoma State U.	When a Physician "Divorces" a Patient: Implications for Patient Satisfaction.
4:30	All	Conclusion, plans for next time
5:30	Rob Hamm's house	Picnic

During the breaks, enjoy these posters:

Posters
	Rob Hamm, Family Medicine, OUHSC	Clinical Decision Making Calculators
	Jennifer Hammond, Psychology, OU	Lotteries over Life Duration: Risk Attitude is related to Being on Vacation.
	Yu-Huei Liu, Psychology, KSU
	Tamiko Mitchell, Psychology, OU	Lotteries over Life Duration: Correlation with Personality Measures.
	Tiffany Strickland, Psychology, OU	Lotteries as a Tool for Measuring Risk Attitude concerning Quality of Life.
	Clarence Rohrbaugh, Psychology, Kansas State Univ	Career Decision Making: A Prescriptive Approach to Decision Making for Students with Little or No Value Structure.
	Sophie Urban-Breeskin, Psychology KSU	Sophie Urban-Breeskin and James Shanteau. A Penny Saved, A Penny Earned: The Role of Proverbs in Consumer Decision Making