

Teaching/ Presentations

Who is/was your primary intended audience?
(Who did you have in mind when you designed this lecture/ presentation?)

Students

Students enrolled in scheduled courses and earning credit towards a degree at OU or another institution

Residents/ Fellows

Residents or Fellows at OU or previous academic institutions

Colleagues

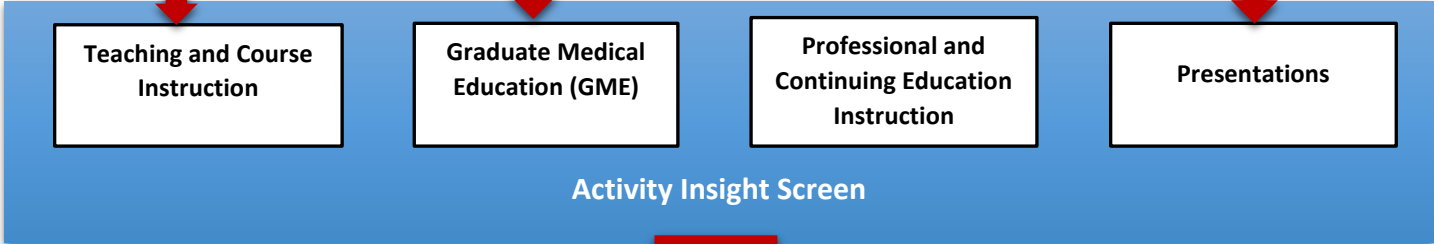

Faculty/ Colleagues at OU or previous academic institutions or other health professionals within a formal program or curriculum

Other

An audience who was not your regular students or colleagues and not part of formal curriculum

Was this instruction delivered as CME or as part of a formal program or curriculum?

Yes No

Activity Insight Screen

- Medical Student Courses
- INDT 8125 Foundations of Medicine
 - PEDI 9650 Pediatric Clerkship
- Graduate Courses
- GENC 5222 Molecular Basis of Genetic Disease
 - CELL 5142 Human Embryology

- Lecture
- Simulation
- Workshop
- Case or M&M Conference
- Grand Rounds (where residents are the primary intended audience)

- Basic Life Support (BLS) Instructor
- Parent Child Interaction Therapy Trainer
- CME instruction to other professionals
- Grand Rounds (where faculty are the primary intended audience)

- Presentations delivered through professional organizations
- Invited Lectures given to general or mixed audiences
- Grand Rounds (where other departments/ institutions are the primary intended audience)

Examples